

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

Southeast WASHINGTON

A marriage of more than ordinary interest to southeast residents interested in the social affairs of this section of the city, was that of Miss Maude T. Carter and Lawrence Maher, Wednesday morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Maguire, in the presence of the relatives of the two families. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Minnie Carter, W. A. Maher, a brother of the groom, was best man. After the ceremony the couple left the city on a trip through the North, where they will visit New York, Niagara Falls and Canada. Upon their return to Washington they will reside at their new home, 436 Kentucky avenue southeast, where after October 15, they will be at home to friends.

Springmann-O'Neill Nuptials.

The parsonage of St. Peter's Church, Second street southeast, was the scene Wednesday evening of the marriage of Miss Annie V. O'Neill and Joseph Springmann. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. James M. O'Brien. The only attendants were Miss Bessie Steele as bridesmaid, and Joseph B. Fague as best man. Immediately after the service, Mr. and Mrs. Springmann left the city on a wedding trip to Canada. They will visit Niagara Falls and the Thousand Islands. Their future home will be at Lorton, Va.

A Pretty Wedding.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Thursday morning, when Miss Ella M. Bentley and Claude M. Sears, of Baltimore, were married at the home of the bride's mother, 520 K street southeast. The ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Mr. Johns, of Christ Episcopal Church, was witnessed by only a few relatives and intimate friends. A reception was held after the service. William Sears was best man for his brother, and Miss Agnes Saxby was maid of honor. The wedding march was played by Miss Long. Later in the day, Mr. and Mrs. Sears left the city on their wedding trip. After October 11 they will receive their friends at 520 K street northeast.

Quietly Married.

Miss Edith Frey and Charles A. Kirk were married at Wilson Memorial Church Wednesday by the Rev. Dr. Edward H. Lamar. The wedding was a very quiet affair, the only witness being Harry Frey, a brother of the bride. The ceremony took place at 10 o'clock, the following day, where they were given a reception at the home of Mr. Kirk's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Kirk.

Wedded in Michigan.

An extremely interesting announcement to many throughout this section tells of the marriage at Grand Rapids, Mich., September 25, of Samuel J. Gargies, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Gargies, of 713 North Carolina avenue southeast, to Miss Florence Schmoor. Only a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Father Schmidt, pastor of St. Andrew's Church of Grand Rapids. A wedding breakfast followed the service, after which Mr. and Mrs. Gargies left on an extended wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside at 1082 Brooklyn avenue, Detroit.

Mr. Gargies has a large number of friends throughout southeast Washington, having lived here most of his life. He attended the Eastern High School and was graduated after the four years' course. He expects to bring his wife East with him during the coming winter holidays, when he will make a short stay with friends and relatives in Washington.

Surprised by Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Reynolds were tendered a surprise party by friends at their home, 232 Sixth street southeast, several evenings ago, in honor of their fourteenth wedding anniversary. An excellent musical program was rendered during the evening and refreshments were served. The following were among those present: Misses Laura Hawkins, Maggie Hawkins, Susan Thigman, Lucy Thigman, Mabel Simms, Jean Miller, Nellie Brown, Lula McKail, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Jackson, Mrs. Charles Simms, Mrs. Margaret, Mrs. Wallington, Mrs. Robert Ashton, Mrs. Joseph Warren, Mrs. William Rollins, Mrs. Walter Stewart, Mrs. William Joyce, and Philip Elwood, W. Lane, W. Newman, James McKail, E. Minor, and Messrs. Jackson, Brown, Mason, Jones, and Pratt.

Will Live in Washington.

Miss Amy L. Day and Elmon V. Carr were married Wednesday night at the Rev. Dr. H. Franz, at the parsonage of Trinity M. E. Church, 309 Fifth street southeast. Later in the evening the couple left the city for the bride's former home in New Haven, Conn., where they will make a short visit. They will soon return to Washington to make their home.

Invitations Are Out.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. William M. Bobb for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Jennie E. Bobb, to William C. Thurber. The ceremony will take place Tuesday evening, October 16, at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 231 Pennsylvania avenue southeast. Only relatives and intimate friends have been invited.

Reception to Orient Drill Corps.

A large number of guests were entertained at the office of Charles Dietz, Jr., 718 North Carolina avenue southeast, Wednesday evening, when a reception was given by the host in honor of the drill corps of Orient Commandery, No. 5, of Knights Templar. The rooms were beautifully decorated with palms and flowers, and an entertaining program of music and speeches passed away the evening. Refreshments were served. The following knights were present: B. Mehn, commander; E. Wilkerson, C. Hasbough, A. Tompkins, R. Wiesnson, Dr. G. Neely, C. Harvey, H. J. Wols, S. Sigers, H. Hasler, J. Holt, J. Bonini, J. E. Wells, H. Lewis, C. Deber, J. Leeger, J. Milnes, Dr. W. H. Wunder, J. McPherson, Dr. Leonard, W. E. Miller, J. R. Costinett, C. S. Thompson, J. Eklof, D. Beach, L. Turner, E. E. Hodgson, J. Schultz, E. P. Hasleton, W. M. Garrett, J. Williams, J. Davies, N. Tippet, H. W. Heintz, J. Cissell.

Bloomingtondale

Gen. J. H. Brinker has moved from 1006 I street northwest to 48 M street northwest.

Mrs. Robert McDonald, of 55 New York avenue, has gone on a trip to Niagara Falls and the Thousand Islands.

Misses Ella, Lizzie, Nannie, and Fanny Jordan, of 15 1/2 Wight county, Va., are visiting their relative, Mrs. Thomas W. Hunsford, 223 N street northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Connor have issued invitations for the wedding reception of their daughter, Ada Waugh, and J. Webster Manning, Wednesday evening, October 10, 7:30 to 9 o'clock, at 223 Florida avenue northwest.

Mrs. John H. Siggers and daughter, Edith, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Watson Leese celebrated the silver anniversary of their wedding at their residence, 77 K street northwest, in the midst of many friends. The Rev. Dr. Little made an address recalling the happy wedding of twenty-five years ago at which he officiated. He was assisted by the Rev. Dr. MacLeod, who also contributed a few well-chosen remarks. The room in which an informal reception occurred was banked with American Beauty roses against a background of palms and ferns, and the dining room, where a buffet lunch was served, was artistically decorated in golden red and autumn flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Leese were the recipients of many presents and remembrances, consisting of some handsome pieces of silverware. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Williamson, Mrs. Alice Kemball McMichael, Mrs. C. L. Wood, Mrs. Frederick Schultz, Dr. Wilson, Dr. and Mrs. MacLeod, Dr. and Mrs. Dollison, Mrs. Burchard, Mr. and Mrs. Carwell, Dr. and Mrs. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Doniphan, Mrs. Ingalls, Mrs. Shane, Misses Lees, Kelly, and Kittleson, and Messrs. Rodrick, Leese, Whitford, Croggon, O'Neill, and Golden.

The Washingtonians assembled at the home of Miss Marion Giddings, 215 H street northwest, Monday evening. Several committees were appointed and other business transacted. Solos were well rendered by Misses Vera and Helen Levy, who were guests of the club. At a late hour refreshments were served. The program was as follows: Misses Appleton, Giddings, Breslin, Harding, Harmon, V. Levy, Messrs. C. M. Phelps, Adams, Willet, Helbig, Pitt, and Bricker.

der of the evening was devoted to music, singing, and games.

Rally Day in M. E. Church.

Rally day was observed last Sunday in the Methodist Episcopal Church on Nichols avenue. At the afternoon Sunday school service the program was as follows: Prayer, by the Rev. H. G. Spencer, the pastor; vocal solo, "Keep Tenting Toward the Highlands," by Mrs. John Hanna; recitation, "Rowing Against the Tide," by Miss Barbara Butterfield; address by Samuel D. Hardy, superintendent of the Sunday school of Waugh Methodist Episcopal Church; vocal duet, by the Messrs. Johnson and Stanley; address by the pastor, the Rev. H. G. Spencer. The closing prayer was offered by the Rev. James McCauley, the president of the Christian Endeavor Society, was in charge of the evening service. The program was as follows: Song service; Scripture reading, Twenty-seventh Psalm; prayer, by the Rev. H. G. Spencer; the closing prayer was offered by the Rev. James McCauley, the president of the Christian Endeavor Society, was in charge of the evening service. The program was as follows: Song service; Scripture reading, Twenty-seventh Psalm; prayer, by the Rev. H. G. Spencer; the closing prayer was offered by the Rev. James McCauley, the president of the Christian Endeavor Society, was in charge of the evening service.

Notes and Personals.

United States band, a member of the United States band, and who resides on Hamilton road, near Sixth street, is at present in Boston, where the band has a two weeks' contract.

Mrs. David N. Faele, of Edinburg, Shenandoah county, Va., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Elice, and Raymond, her son, were visitors at the home of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Glick, Jr., of Hamilton road, the past week.

Mrs. Robert McKay and son, Albert, of Fifth street, returned home Thursday, after about six weeks' absence spent in visiting relatives and friends in Boston and in Halifax, N. S.

S. J. Breslin went on his furlough Wednesday for twenty days. Mr. Breslin and family left Thursday for Pennsylvania, where he will visit relatives.

There is a movement on foot in this suburb to organize a lodge of Patriotic Knights of America here. Already a number of signers have been secured.

John Wright, of Nicholas avenue, returned home last Sunday, after a week's visit to Harpers Ferry, W. Va.

Leut. John Covington, of chemical engine company No. 5, returned to his duties Wednesday, after a leave of absence of twenty days, which he spent visiting relatives and friends in Virginia.

The Citizens' Association soon will hold an open meeting in its hall on Hamilton road, near Sixth street, on matters of interest to property owners.

William B. Dunn, a member of the Capitol police force, who lives in Randle Park, has returned home after a visit to relatives and friends in New Brunswick, N. J.

Charles W. Murphy, of Nichols avenue, contemplates leaving here on the 15th instant for New York city, whence he will sail for Panama.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Bratton, of Park street, are visiting relatives and friends in Jersey City, N. J., and New York city.

Frank Jaegers has returned to his home in New York city after several weeks' stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Woods, of Park street.

Carpenters have started building a residence for Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Seger, in the Butterfield addition.

Miss Irene Dietrich, of East Capitol street, who has been spending several weeks with relatives in the West, has returned home.

Miss Grace B. Humphrey is visiting friends at Brookville, this county.

Ross Benson, of Griffin, son of Hon. H. R. Benson, former member of Maryland Legislature from this county, is announced to marry Miss Burnette, of Delaware, daughter of former State Treasurer Burnette. Mr. Benson has been catcher of a Delaware team this year when they met and soon became engaged.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Gott, of Peolesville, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Helen Thompson, to Mr. Alfred E. Ray, of Gordon, Ray, Mass., after which a social hour was enjoyed and a delightful luncheon served.

The Home Interest Club met at the home of Mrs. M. A. Keys near Forest Glen, where there was a large attendance, among whom special guests were Mrs. Alfred E. Ray, of Gordon, Ray, Mass., Ben Ray, lately of Texas; Miss Little, of Scotland, and Mrs. Faulkner, of Boston. Mrs. W. W. Wright, an honorary member, gave a delightful talk about her recent trip to England and Ireland; Mrs. Helen Thompson told of her trip to fishing fields of Gloucester, after which a social hour was enjoyed and a delightful luncheon served.

Alexandria

The marriage of Miss Lucy Leadbeater, daughter of Mrs. Clara Leadbeater, and Laurence Stabler has been announced to occur the latter part of this month.

Miss Laura Smoot and the Misses Danenbower are spending some time in Paris.

Mrs. John Leadbeater, who has been spending the summer at Center Conway, N. H., has returned to her home in this city.

George C. West, of Spencer, N. C., and Miss Mabel J. Brown, of this city, were quietly married at the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal Church, by the Rev. J. H. E. Ewell.

The engagement of Miss Janet Brown Fawcett, daughter of Mr. Edward Fawcett, to Lewis Chessman, of Scranton, Pa., is announced.

Misses Nellie and Blanche Allen, of Culpeper, and Miss Floyd Schneider, of Reading, Pa., who have been visiting Mrs. J. L. Dennis, Jr., in this city, have returned home.

Miss Lucy Harbour Ewing left last week for Washington to teach music and history in the Laise-Phillips School, in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Davidson have as their guest their daughter, Mrs. Robert Beverley Minis, of New York.

Mrs. Mary E. Franklin, who has been spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Alexander Murray, at West River, Md., has returned.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Scott, who have been spending part of the summer at Berryville, have returned.

Alfred Moore, of Liverpool, England, who has been visiting friends in this city, has returned to his home.

Edward L. Daingerfield and family, who have been summering in Europe, have returned to their home on Seminary Hill.

H. K. Field, H. P. of Mt. Vernon Royal Arch Chapter Masons, last week paid a visit to Mt. Moreh Chapter in Washington.

Miss Eleanor S. Field has gone to Buena Vista where she will see the Southern Railway for the season.

Miss Cora L. Cochran has as her guest during the week Miss Elizabeth Casin, of San Antonio, Tex.

Mrs. Mary Ticer and Mrs. J. H. Mansfield have gone to Trenton, N. J.

Mrs. Courtland H. Smith and Miss Lucy Douglas have returned from a visit to Yellowstone Park and the West.

David J. Lannon, of New York, paid a short visit to his old home during the week.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Annie Virginia O'Neill and Joseph Morton Springman, both of Alexandria, Va. The ceremony took place at the parsonage of St. Peter's Church, Washington.

Judge J. K. M. Norton, who has been spending the past few weeks at his farm in lower Fairfax county, has returned.

The Rev. J. L. Allison, D. D., pastor of the Gunton-Temple Memorial Presbyterian Church, Washington, preached at the Second Presbyterian Church Wednesday evening.

H. A. Downham, R. M. Latham, J. R. Clapton, E. C. Wildt, and G. M. Myers, of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company, attended the Pennsylvania firemen's convention at Gettysburg, Pa., during the past week.

John H. Trimyer has returned from a trip through North Carolina.

Mrs. Mamie Petty and son, Ellsworth, who have been visiting Mrs. Marion Mayhugh, has returned to her home in Maryland.

James Keogh, who has been visiting in the West, has returned to his home in this city.

W. E. Germann, who has been visiting in the West, has returned to his home in Pennsylvania.

C. Louis Polmar last week left for New York and Niagara Falls.

Catholic Church in Washington on Wednesday noon at which the Rev. Father Thomas B. McGuigan officiated. Both bride and groom are well and prominent known in this section. Leo Hayes, the groom's brother, and Miss Carrie Gott, sister of the bride, were attendants. The couple went on a short honeymoon, and will return to Barnesville, Md., to reside.

T. Eugene Gartrell, telegraph operator for several years at Boyds for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, has resigned and left to join the United States Army, and will be stationed at Fort Wood, New York.

Mayor Cornelius Eckhardt, of Kensington, who has been in a Baltimore recently for an operation, has returned to his home at Kensington.

Miss Bessie Cushman, of Kensington, left this week for Richmond, where she goes to resume studies in voice culture.

Mrs. David H. Fenton, wife of the late Hon. David Fenton, of the Maryland Legislature, from this county, with her family, has moved to Washington. Mrs. Fenton has received an appointment in the Land Office.

Mrs. I. Bell, of Baltimore, who has been visiting Col. and Mrs. John T. Brady, has returned home.

Harry C. Armstrong, of Kensington, is to have charge of the United States Exposition next year. Mr. Armstrong holds a very important position in the Patent Office, which especially fits him for the position he will hold.

The first meeting of the calendar year of the W. M. A. Club, of Kensington, was held Friday at the home of President Mrs. J. Harry Cunningham. Miss Alfred E. Ray, of Gordon, Ray, Mass., and Mrs. Helen Thompson, of Gloucester, were present. Refreshments were served during the afternoon.

The Home Interest Club met at the home of Mrs. M. A. Keys near Forest Glen, where there was a large attendance, among whom special guests were Mrs. Alfred E. Ray, of Gordon, Ray, Mass., Ben Ray, lately of Texas; Miss Little, of Scotland, and Mrs. Faulkner, of Boston. Mrs. W. W. Wright, an honorary member, gave a delightful talk about her recent trip to England and Ireland; Mrs. Helen Thompson told of her trip to fishing fields of Gloucester, after which a social hour was enjoyed and a delightful luncheon served.

Rockville

Dr. George L. Edmunds and family have moved from their home at this place to Washington, D. C., for the winter.

Mrs. B. F. Fairfax, of Virginia, has been visiting her sister, Miss Edna Ward, of Washington Grove, this county. Mrs. P. M. Smith, of Galtersburg, was the guest of Miss Ward last week.

George M. Anderson left recently for Spokane, Wash., on legal business for the Department of Justice, with which he is connected. He expects to be absent about a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren R. Choate have returned to their home here after spending some time at Asheville, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. William Garner Bouie, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. Bouie's parents, Hon. and Mrs. William Beirs Bouie, this place, and also in Atlantic City, have returned to their home in Kentucky.

Bouie Clark, a member of the Viola Allen company, spent a few days at his home in this county, during the engagement of the company at the National Theater, Washington, the past week.

Maurice E. Price, of Dickerson, who is in the employ of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company as a telegraph operator, and Mrs. Virginia E. Miller, of Fairmont, W. Va., were married here by the Rev. T. H. Campbell, pastor of the Baptist church.

Miss Mary Eloise Gott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Gott, of Peolesville, was married on Wednesday to L. J. Wood, of Barnesville, this county, at St. Patrick's Church, Washington.

Father T. B. McGuire officiated. Miss Carrie Gott, a sister of the bride, and the groom's brother, Leo Hayes, were the only attendants. After the ceremony a luncheon was tendered the bride and groom by the party, after which they left on a short honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes are to return to Barnesville, where they will reside.

Ross Benson, of this town, a college pitcher, and who played the season on the Bridgeville club, will marry the daughter of Barnesville, this county, at St. Patrick's Church, Washington.

Father T. B. McGuire officiated. Miss Carrie Gott, a sister of the bride, and the groom's brother, Leo Hayes, were the only attendants. After the ceremony a luncheon was tendered the bride and groom by the party, after which they left on a short honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes are to return to Barnesville, where they will reside.

Ross Benson, of this town, a college pitcher, and who played the season on the Bridgeville club, will marry the daughter of Barnesville, this county, at St. Patrick's Church, Washington.

Father T. B. McGuire officiated. Miss Carrie Gott, a sister of the bride, and the groom's brother, Leo Hayes, were the only attendants. After the ceremony a luncheon was tendered the bride and groom by the party, after which they left on a short honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes are to return to Barnesville, where they will reside.

Ross Benson, of this town, a college pitcher, and who played the season on the Bridgeville club, will marry the daughter of Barnesville, this county, at St. Patrick's Church, Washington.

Father T. B. McGuire officiated. Miss Carrie Gott, a sister of the bride, and the groom's brother, Leo Hayes, were the only attendants. After the ceremony a luncheon was tendered the bride and groom by the party, after which they left on a short honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes are to return to Barnesville, where they will reside.

Ross Benson, of this town, a college pitcher, and who played the season on the Bridgeville club, will marry the daughter of Barnesville, this county, at St. Patrick's Church, Washington.

Father T. B. McGuire officiated. Miss Carrie Gott, a sister of the bride, and the groom's brother, Leo Hayes, were the only attendants. After the ceremony a luncheon was tendered the bride and groom by the party, after which they left on a short honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes are to return to Barnesville, where they will reside.

Ross Benson, of this town, a college pitcher, and who played the season on the Bridgeville club, will marry the daughter of Barnesville, this county, at St. Patrick's Church, Washington.

Father T. B. McGuire officiated. Miss Carrie Gott, a sister of the bride, and the groom's brother, Leo Hayes, were the only attendants. After the ceremony a luncheon was tendered the bride and groom by the party, after which they left on a short honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes are to return to Barnesville, where they will reside.

Ross Benson, of this town, a college pitcher, and who played the season on the Bridgeville club, will marry the daughter of Barnesville, this county, at St. Patrick's Church, Washington.

Father T. B. McGuire officiated. Miss Carrie Gott, a sister of the bride, and the groom's brother, Leo Hayes, were the only attendants. After the ceremony a luncheon was tendered the bride and groom by the party, after which they left on a short honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes are to return to Barnesville, where they will reside.

Ross Benson, of this town, a college pitcher, and who played the season on the Bridgeville club, will marry the daughter of Barnesville, this county, at St. Patrick's Church, Washington.

Father T. B. McGuire officiated. Miss Carrie Gott, a sister of the bride, and the groom's brother, Leo Hayes, were the only attendants. After the ceremony a luncheon was tendered the bride and groom by the party, after which they left on a short honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes are to return to Barnesville, where they will reside.

Ross Benson, of this town, a college pitcher, and who played the season on the Bridgeville club, will marry the daughter of Barnesville, this county, at St. Patrick's Church, Washington.

Father T. B. McGuire officiated. Miss Carrie Gott, a sister of the bride, and the groom's brother, Leo Hayes, were the only attendants. After the ceremony a luncheon was tendered the bride and groom by the party, after which they left on a short honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes are to return to Barnesville, where they will reside.

Ross Benson, of this town, a college pitcher, and who played the season on the Bridgeville club, will marry the daughter of Barnesville, this county, at St. Patrick's Church, Washington.

Father T. B. McGuire officiated. Miss Carrie Gott, a sister of the bride, and the groom's brother, Leo Hayes, were the only attendants. After the ceremony a luncheon was tendered the bride and groom by the party, after which they left on a short honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes are to return to Barnesville, where they will reside.

Ross Benson, of this town, a college pitcher, and who played the season on the Bridgeville club, will marry the daughter of Barnesville, this county, at St. Patrick's Church, Washington.

Father T. B. McGuire officiated. Miss Carrie Gott, a sister of the bride, and the groom's brother, Leo Hayes, were the only attendants. After the ceremony a luncheon was tendered the bride and groom by the party, after which they left on a short honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes are to return to Barnesville, where they will reside.

Ross Benson, of this town, a college pitcher, and who played the season on the Bridgeville club, will marry the daughter of Barnesville, this county, at St. Patrick's Church, Washington.

Father T. B. McGuire officiated. Miss Carrie Gott, a sister of the bride, and the groom's brother, Leo Hayes, were the only attendants. After the ceremony a luncheon was tendered the bride and groom by the party, after which they left on a short honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes are to return to Barnesville, where they will reside.

Ross Benson, of this town, a college pitcher, and who played the season on the Bridgeville club, will marry the daughter of Barnesville, this county, at St. Patrick's Church, Washington.

Father T. B. McGuire officiated. Miss Carrie Gott, a sister of the bride, and the groom's brother, Leo Hayes, were the only attendants. After the ceremony a luncheon was tendered the bride and groom by the party, after which they left on a short honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes are to return to Barnesville, where they will reside.

Ross Benson, of this town, a college pitcher, and who played the season on the Bridgeville club, will marry the daughter of Barnesville, this county, at St. Patrick's Church, Washington.

Father T. B. McGuire officiated. Miss Carrie Gott, a sister of the bride, and the groom's brother, Leo Hayes, were the only attendants. After the ceremony a luncheon was tendered the bride and groom by the party, after which they left on a short honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes are to return to Barnesville, where they will reside.

Leesburg, Va.

Dr. Horace Truxton Morrison, a well-known druggist of Hamilton, Loudoun county, died at his home in that place on Wednesday night, aged thirty-five years. Death was due to pneumonia. Dr. Morrison was well known in Washington, where he had a large number of relatives. He was a son of Col. J. H. Morrison, of Luray, Va., who was for many years a professor of the Virginia Military Institute, at Lexington, Va., and a grandson of Gen. Francis Smith, the founder of the institute. Dr. Morrison married Miss Blanche Bradley, of Luray, who, with three small children, survives.

Josephine Parr, of the Loudoun National Bank of Leesburg, and son of P. H. Parr, of Waterford, Va., was married Wednesday afternoon to Miss Nellie McIntosh, daughter of the late James H. McIntosh, a former treasurer of Loudoun county, at the home of the bride's mother, near Leesburg. The ceremony was performed by Dr. J. W. Lupton, pastor of the Presbyterian church. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Mary McIntosh, and the best man was Ernest L. Carr, of Waterford. Mr. and Mrs. Carr left on an evening train for a southern tour, after which they will reside in Leesburg.

On Wednesday morning Thomas Kent and Nellie Seaton, both of Loudoun county, were married at the Baptist parsonage in Leesburg by the pastor, the Rev. Frank P. Berkeley.

Hempstone Vansickler has purchased from J. F. Hampton the farm of the late J. F. Garrett, situated near Philomont, Loudoun county, and containing 126 acres. Mr. Vansickler will resign his position with the People's National bank of Leesburg and take formal charge of the estate in the near future.

Mrs. William Corcoran Eustis, of Washington, D. C., who has her summer home near here, has cards out for an afternoon tea at "Oaklands House," on Friday, October 12.

The Bridge Club was delightfully entertained on Thursday morning by Mrs. William A. Metzgar at her home on Clifton street. Those playing were Misses Mary Arthur Fendall, Nancy Lee Janney, Belle McGill, Rebecca Harrison, Lillian Janney, Virginia Bouie, Maria Harrison, Richard Wise, Violet Alexander and Medames Charles L. Claggett, C. Shirley Carter, Jr., Beverly Chichester, W. D. Hempstone, John S. Castleman, B. V. White and William Metzgar. The highest scores were made by Mrs. White, Mrs. Claggett, Miss Nancy Janney and Rebecca Harrison. Miss McGill will entertain the club next week.

A committee composed of Mrs. W. D. Hempstone, Miss Richard Wise, and Mrs. E. G. Cautman, are making arrangements for a large subscription dance, to be held for the benefit of the Confederate memorial bazaar, which begins on October 22 and continues until the end of that week.

John B. Henderson, Jr., the Republican nominee for Congress for the Eighth district, was the guest of N. C. Nichols, of Leesburg, on Thursday.

Charles F. Dalley, who recently sold his jewelry business in Leesburg to R. A. Ogden, will, with his wife and daughter, shortly move to Strasburg, Va., where they will make their future home.

Miss Elizabeth Harper, of Washington, D. C., has been the guest the past week of Miss Millicent Lupton, of this town.

Mrs. Charles Le Bourgeois, who, with her two children, has been spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. Louis Powell, at "Grasmere," returned on Wednesday to her home in New Orleans.

Dr. Townsend, of Washington, D. C., was in Leesburg the past week in attendance at the Carr-McIntosh nuptials.

Mrs. William B. McIlwaine and Miss Anne McIlwaine, who have been visiting Mrs. Charles A. English, have returned to their home in Petersburg, Va.

Mrs. Wilson K. Levering, of Baltimore, Md., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Ella Matthews.